"Be merciful as your Father is merciful." What does that mean? The Father has great love for all of us because we are His creation. He reads every heart and gives what we need, when we need it. To be like the Father is to look upon your fellow human and treat that person with great respect and dignity. It's not for us to judge but to love all the people that God sends to us. Then you will be merciful as the Father is merciful.
