

St. IGNATIUS THE MARTYR PARISH

Bulletin 1,016 September 21st 2025

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer to St. Ignatius of Antioch

Bishop and Martyr – Patron of Our Parish

St. Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop and Martyr, patron of our parish, you faithfully guided, instructed and ministered with generosity, as did the apostles before you. You were not afraid of the persecutions of the Roman empire. When you journeyed to your martyrdom, you wrote seven letters to seven Christian communities, encouraging them to be faithful to Jesus Christ and to our Holy Mother Church. Pray for us, your disciples here in Ottawa, that we have the courage to proclaim the gospel in word and deed. May our parish be a shining beacon of hope - welcoming, inclusive, and loving. We give glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen in the next life to come. Don't be selfish but love your neighbour as yourself. Read the gospel again; I think that you'll get it.

The gospel is confusing this week for those with a "western world" mind set. It could, however, be interpreted in this way. The dishonest manager, having been discovered in his dishonesty, is thinking of the future. So instead of worrying about money, he ensures that he'll be well taken care of by these clients that he is making deals with. In other words, your real safety net is not so much the money but in good caring relationships that bring profit not only in this life but

St. Francis Transitus Celebration - Friday October 3th at 7:00 PM

Join us for a special evening as we commemorate the Transitus of St. Francis of Assisi - the moment of his peaceful passing from earthly life into eternal life with God. The word Transitus comes from Latin, meaning "passage" or "crossing over." This solemn yet hope-filled tradition invites us to reflect on St. Francis's final hours, his joyful embrace of "Sister Death," and his unwavering devotion to Christ. Through prayer, readings, and song, we honor his legacy and renew our own commitment to living the Gospel.

The reflection will be by Friar Maurice.
